

Mollart Engineering (Chessington) Limited

Apprentice Quality Engineer

The Role:

An opportunity has arisen for an Apprentice Quality Engineer to join a long-established company with a world leading reputation for the manufacture of cutting tools and provider of precision subcontract machining, based in Chessington, Surrey.

Working within the company's Subcontract division the successful candidate will be part of a dynamic engineering team ensuring quality across manufacturing processes and procedures for a range of sectors as diverse as Aerospace, oil and gas, nuclear, automotive, semiconductor and general engineering.

This is an outstanding opportunity to become part of a growing division with opportunity for personal growth and responsibility. The ideal candidate will be an individual with a strong interest in engineering who wants to progress and gain experience and understanding of precision engineering practices and the quality procedures required within.

As you progress through your apprenticeship you will develop the ability to program and run sophisticated inspection machinery and use standard measuring equipment, working to tight tolerances and be responsible for ensuring the company's high level of quality standards are maintained.

Structured Learning:

As part of the Apprenticeship program the individual will undertake a structured regime which over the course of the program consolidates their experience and knowledge, enabling them to:

- Work safely in a machining environment
- Create their own CMM programs
- Operate high value and complex machinery
- Determine if components meet the quality standards required

Requirements:

- IT literate.
- Excellent organizational and multitasking skills.
- Positive can-do attitude.
- Attention to detail and disciplined.
- Excellent communication skills.

The Package

- Competitive salary package with structured scheme that rewards progress at college, commitment and work ethic.
- Enrolment in relevant College course
- 38 hour week – 12pm finish on Fridays
- Pension scheme.
- Life Assurance

- Participation in-company bonus scheme (subject to qualifying period).
- 5 weeks holiday plus bank holidays.
